

Alice Marx

September 17, 1930 - January 12, 2022

Alice (Wainman) Marx, 91, of Evansville, passed away Wednesday, January 12, 2022 at her home at Holiday Village.

Alice was born September 17, 1930 in Evansville to the late Arthur and Aileen Wainman. She was a 1948 graduate of Central High School and a lifelong member of Immanuel Presbyterian Church. Alice enjoyed family gatherings, meeting with friends, and crocheting blankets for others. Alice was a loving mother, grandmother and great grandmother. She will be greatly missed.

Surviving Alice are her daughter and son in law, Sharon and Bob Flesher; grandchildren, Andrew Watson, Holly (Jacob) Kiper, Allison (Eric) Weiss and great grandchildren who were the loves of her life, Sam and Reid Kiper and Evelyn and Arra Weiss. Also surviving Alice are her goddaughter and niece, Cindy Sipes and many nieces, nephews and friends she loved dearly.

In addition to her parents, Alice was preceded in death by her husband of 67 years, Bill Marx in 2019; by a daughter Sandra Shuler; her twin sister, Ella Ramage and brothers, Bill and Arthur Wainman.

Funeral services will be private. Burial will take place in Memorial Park Cemetery.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to the staff of Holiday Village for their loving and compassionate care; with a special thank you to Maria, Melissa, and Sherrie.

“ It was an honor and privilege to be a part of Alice's life these past two years. I remember her just as proud as could be when her grandkids visited. We commiserated with each other during the long covid shutdown. And I will feel her loss especially around 9 and 1 for a long time.
