“ Dear Margie and family,

Sending you my deepest condolences on Harold' s passing. I remember him as a good man and fun to be around.
I always enjoyed being with your family.

Margie, I have such special memories of all of you from my childhood and our time together on Helfrich Avenue. From both you and Harold being kind enough to teach me to water ski on the Ohio River to babysitting for Cindy, Julie, Dan & Rick, I hold those memories dear.

I lost Mom a year ago just after her 95th Birthday; and with Harold being 89 when he passed, they both were blessed with good, long lives. So very thankful to have had them with us for so long but then never ready to let them go...

Thoughts & prayers to all of you.

Sincerely,

Pam Dickhart Strasser
