“ I would like to share a memory that makes me giggle as a kid growing up we would often watch the muppets. My brother JR's favorite Muppet was the Swedish Chef he would often imitate him :) While helping in the kitchen. My favorite time is when my brothers JR and John and of course me . Helped make chicken & dumplings . My mom would have us roll out the dough on the kitchen table. And cut them in rows then on the diagonal. And we would take turns dropping them slowly into the chicken and broth . The whole time JR would be talking in the chef voice. He was such a goofball . Bubba you will be missed and making chicken and dumplings will not be the same without you . With much love your sister Naomi
