“ From your loving Mother, with all of my heart...
I told you, I was there for your first breath and heartbeat, I would be here for your last, and I was. You were sent to be my daughter and a fine young woman you grew up to be with 4 beautiful children my cup runneth over. Your brother is as broken hearted as myself and both of your Dad's. Not everyone is lucky enough to have 2 Dad's but you do, and they both love you as much as I, Pooh Bear. We are all heart broken our world will never be the same for a loving soul gone too soon we all love you and your children will grow up knowing how much you did and still do love them. Forever in our hearts we will meet again, till then your MEMORY will be forever with us!

“ Jennie and I went to high school together and danced together for several years. She was a firecracker and so bright with a contagious smile. One of my favorite memories ever was when she, Natalie Eger, and I went on Spring Break together to Treasure Island our senior year of high school—I still look at those photo and laugh. Jennie had a commanding presence and was a natural leader on our dance teams and could always make us hyperventilate from laughing too hard. But more importantly, she was a kind and good friend to me and I will always remember that. I was (and still am) so sad, but then angry because the world is seriously losing out without you. Thank you, Jennie for your mark. Rest well, sweet friend

“ Take comfort in knowing that Jennie is in the arms of Jesus. We were so blessed to know Jennie, not only as a friend but also a neighbor. We were also lucky enough, on several occasions, to be the recipients of Jennie’s wonderful cooking. Jacob, we are here if you need anything. We will continue to keep you and your family in our prayers.

“ I was never blessed to meet Jennie, but my good friend Sam asked us to pray for her in our prayer group, and we did so. I am very sorry to hear of her passing -- the human side of us grieves, but our Spirit rejoices in knowing that she is in the arms of Jesus right now. Please know that our prayers for the Kane family continue, prayers for God's Peace, Comfort, and Strength to surround her husband and all of her children, as well as the rest of her family and friends. The loss of a loved one isn't something that you ever really get over, but we pray that the grief of these past days is replaced by loving remembrances of all of the incredible memories you have of her.

May God grant you His Peace, the Peace that transcends understanding, in the days to come.
