“ Joyce was a true friend and neighbor we remember whenever Joyce was going out or coming to church she was one of the best dressed ladies and her second love of her life, Steve Riedel, was always beaming with pride to be with her. Because not only did Joyce always look beautiful, but she was also a sweet sweet lady to everyone. We miss you our dear friend. You are now one of the beautiful angels you saw in your dreams shortly before your passing.
God Bless!

“ Joyce will always be remembered as the lovely and beautiful woman she was, smiling and so happy to see us whenever we met. She will always be in our hearts and those of Steve and her family. Joyce can now rest in God's hands!
