“ I serve snacks up at Bethel Manor and always enjoyed Nina. She was almost always sitting in her chair, smiling, and wanted two cookies. I did not get up during the snow/ice storm so when I went up Monday, I was surprised to find her bed empty and they told me how she had passed. I loved her picture from the paper. Too often we only see our residents in their later years, and it is good to see them and read about their "other life."
I will miss her.

“ Sorry to hear of Nina's passing, Tim! We hope your pain will ease with the support of friends and family!

I am standing upon the seashore. A ship, at my side, spreads her white sails to the moving breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength.
I stand and watch her until, at length, she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come to mingle with each other.

Then, someone at my side says, "There, she is gone"

Gone where?

Gone from my sight. That is all. She is just as large in mast, hull and spar as she was when she left my side.
And, she is just as able to bear her load of living freight to her destined port.

Her diminished size is in me -- not in her.
And, just at the moment when someone says, "There, she is gone," there are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout, "Here she comes!"

“ Receiving word of Nina's death was very sad news for me, my wife and my kids. Everyone had nothing but good words to describe Nina; she was a very kind and loving person. Tim, I pray that God will comfort you and your family during this very difficult time. Know that we love you and will continue to hold you in our thoughts.

“ Tim so sorry to read of the passing of your wife, Nina. Losing a beloved spouse is one of the worse things a person can experience. God is good and will be with you and your family at this time and forever to help you get through this. My sincere condolences to all of you. Sincerely, your friend and classmate. Judie McCool
