

Richard A. Kamp Sr.

January 13, 1935 - October 9, 2019

Richard A. Kamp, Sr., age 84, of Evansville, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, October 9, 2019 at the Columbia Healthcare Center.

Richard was born January 13, 1935 in South Milwaukee, Wisconsin to the late Andrew and Thelma (Moore) Kamp. He was a 1953 graduate of FJ Reitz High School where he was the student manager of the football team. Richard worked as a mechanic and was the proud owner and operator of a Texaco filling station at the corner of Barker Avenue and Claremont Avenue.

Surviving Richard are his children, Debra Peckenpaugh (Steve) Hudson, James (Kathy) Peckenpaugh, Susan (Greg) Fellers, Richard (Karen) Kamp, Jr., David (Kathy) Kamp and James (Lisa) Kamp; many grandchildren and great grandchildren.

In addition to his parents, Richard was preceded in death by his wife of 45 years, Marianne Kamp in 2009 and by a brother, Charles Kamp.

Private funeral services will be held at a later date.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to the first-floor administration and staff at Columbia Healthcare and Heritage Hospice for their kind and compassionate care.

Condolences may be made online at www.pierrefuneralhome.com.

Cemetery

Evansville Crematory

318 N. Lemcke Ave.

Evansville, IN,

Comments

“ I'm sad to learn of Mr. Kamp's passing. My sympathy goes out to the entire family. It was a pleasure to work with Mr. Kamp over the years. Sincerely, Michelle Rose, Gaslin Insurance Agency, Inc.

Michelle Rose - October 15 at 01:54 PM

“ I remember going to the gas station with my dad Ted Avery back in the 70's he always gave me a soda

John Avery - October 13 at 12:51 PM

“ I enjoyed riding in the Crosley Wagon except when we wrecked on St Joe. I remember we used to chain it to a light pole at the PYC dances after some jokers hide it in the bushes on the hill. we had a lot of fun back then. Joihn Estes

John Estes - October 12 at 10:30 AM