

Yvonne Jane Dyson

January 18, 1937 - March 15, 2020

Yvonne Jane (McCutchan) Dyson, 83, of Evansville, passed away Sunday, March 15, 2020 at the Linda E. White Hospice House.

Yvonne was born January 18, 1937 in Evansville to the late Arthur and Florence (Lochmueller) McCutchan. She worked as a secretary in the emergency room at Deaconess Hospital for many years and enjoyed, crocheting, camping, and attending her grandchildren's sporting events.

Surviving Yvonne are her daughter, Chris Dyson; three sons and their wives, Kenny and Marty Dyson, Tim and Joan Dyson and Mike and Cathy Dyson, all of Evansville; nine grandchildren, Andrew, Jennifer, Cindy, Ryan, Cody, Kayla, Sarah, Aubrey and Caleb; five great grandchildren, Dominic, Elliott, Jace, Jett and Layla and a great granddaughter expected in July of 2020.

In addition to her parents, Yvonne was preceded in death by her husband of 61 years, James Dyson in 2018 and by two brothers, James and Karl McCutchan.

Due to current circumstances, visitation and funeral services will be private. Burial will take place at Blue Grass Cemetery in McCutchanville.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Chancellor Center for Oncology, 4055 Gateway Blvd, Newburgh, IN 47630.

“ Dear Kenney, Tim, Mike, and Christy: My name is Richard Carver, I am sorry for the loss of your mother. Each time I came back to Evansville, I would visit with your dad and mom. What great memories. What wonderful neighbors all of you were. I hope we can stay connected in some manner. I have great memories of your mom and dad and they will be greatly missed.

“ Rich Carver, Carolin Preher, and I, Theresa Webb extend our thoughts & love to Chris, Kenny, Tim, & Mike on the loss of your mother Yvonne. She (& Jim) were good neighbors to our parents on Spring St. Yvonne was so much fun to talk to, she had a great laugh. When I stayed with my parents at the end of their lives, she would invite me in when she saw me outside & we would talk about both our families. She loved all her children very much & was very proud of each one. I just barely remember babysitting Kenny when he was a child. He must have been real good or I might have remembered it better. Let's learn from our parents & pass good memories on to our kids.
Love to all, Theresa

“ I met Yvonne when I came to Deaconess as a young Emergency Physician in 1981. She was one of the people who made me feel most welcome and we remained good friends over the many years we worked together in the trenches. She was a valued member of the team and I was always glad to see her smiling face and hear her quick wit during stressful times. She was a great lady and I know she will be missed by the family and friends she loved so much.

“ Yes, Christmas at Grandma and Grandpa McCutchan's house is where I got time with Yvonne. Early in my life, let's say 1949, at the Christmas exchange, my Daddy (Harry) had drawn Yvonne's name. On her wish list was a half slip. Now that was a risky wish because half slips were barely invented, and the end of WWII still put a crimp on any luxury. When Yvonne opened her gift of a white slip, she was so amazed and happy that she stood up and put the slip at her waist as if to model it. Then it hit her: She was standing in front of the whole family including Grandparents mock-modeling a piece of underwear! Worse, it had lace around the bottom! I can still hear her shriek, "Harreeeeeey!"
I saw Yvonne once in her emergency room--that's the way it felt because everyone said that she ruled the room. And she did. I was so proud of my cousin.

“ Most of my memories of Yvonne are Christmases at Mollie and Harrison McCutchan's house, which was next door to mine. The front room would be crowded with Karl, James, Thompson's and Uncle Bert and Aunt Dorothy, and Brett and Brat. Yvonne stayed serenely above the fray. With 13 years between our ages, we were nearly a generation apart. Karl and I shared a birth date, (he was 3 years older.) I still glance at the house where Uncle and Mac and Aunt Florence lived as I drive by. Take care in these very strange times.
