“ So many memories with Uncle Aaron. There was never a dull moment ever with him. When I spent the night with him and Myrna, he kept telling me he was going to take me to McDonalds for breakfast. I kept telling him that I wanted to go to Bob Evans. He kept telling me no the whole time, but we ended up at Bob Evans anyway. Lol he has a heart of gold and would do anything for any body. I will never forget the night we went to Fox and Hound for the singing competition I was in. He ended up breaking 2 chairs, and got super mad. Wasnt funny at the time, but we laughed about that all the time! He will be missed by many! Rest in peace uncle Aaron! Until we meet again!💖💖
