“ I lived across the corner from Agnes in the 80's My 5yr. old daughter and I would visit with her on her front porch swing. When she moved to Indy. she gave me her big christmas cactus and another plant called moses in the cradle. I still have these plants and have thought of her over the years. I extend my sympathy to your family. May you be blessed with happy memory's of her as I have. Sincerely, Leslie###imported-begin###Leslie Lindauer###imported-end##

“ Dear Lee and Family,

I don't believe I can come but I dearly want to pay my last respects to a great lady. Agnes and my dad were great friends as well as cousins and that is how I came to know Agnes and her husband, Frank. I admired her graciousness, talents and cherished her knowledge of family history, stories and friendship. God Bless Her.
