“ It is sad to hear grandma is gone, but we always loved her in our hearts. To all the family members: Maybe we can learn from others in passing, how little time we have to love one another. My sympathy belongs to those who mourn now. In the hope that we will all see each other in our home in heaven. Where grandma is now. None of us escapes death and soon will all be United with each other, Where we will be a family forever and no one will part us unlike here on earth.

Love,

Kathy, John, Angel and Jennifer
