“ Emily, Laura, Daniel and Larry,

I wanted to pass along our condolencse in the loss of your mother / wife. It was obvious to those around her that she was a loving person dedicated to her family. That, within itself is a blessing.

Though you are feeling a lot pain right now, you will not forgot the goodness of your mother and know that you can forever lean upon on her strengths.

Emily, I know you best and your are a sweet young lady; always smiling, like your mom. I feel those attributes of a person are not by accident, but are learned from those around you. Your mom was a great teacher.

You are blessed with many, many friends. Please consider our family your friends and we would be more than happy to be there for you and your family at any time.##imported-begin##Mike Harp##imported-end##
