“ Allison's sharing of the driving to Arkansas to visit Doris a few years ago is a memory I still treasure. She sure kept me entertained with stories and chatter. She was a live wire, for sure.

May the angels who greeted her on Saturday comfort you for a long time.

“ My condolences go out to Allison's family. Anyone who knew Allison knows she was a fighter to the very end. She fought many battles in her fight with cancer and I admire her for that. You stood by her side during her journey, and I praise you for that. Her courage kept her going and now she is with her mother rejoicing in her new home! God bless all of you.
