

Alvin Wolf

June 19, 1927 - August 29, 2013

Alvin B. Wolf, 86, of Evansville, IN passed away August 29 at VNA Plus Charlier Hospice Center.

Alvin was born in St. Joseph, IN on June 19, 1927 to the late Carl and Laurina Wolf.

Mr. Wolf graduated from F.J. Reitz High School in 1945. Alvin served in the United States Navy during World War II, aboard the aircraft carrier USS Mindoro. He worked at Holtzclaw Trailers, Benerson Corporation, co-founded Evansville Tool & Die, and then moved on to Evana Tool and Engineering (Automation), where he retired.

Alvin was a hero to his family and is survived by his wife of 64 years, Bernice (Thomas) Wolf, children David (Marilyn); Gail (Tom) Cummings; Janet (Steve) Glesige; grandchildren, Kevin and Brian (Ju) Wolf, Troy Cummings, Heather and Scott Glesige; sisters, Estella (Stan) Parker, Rita (Bob) Straub and Anna Mae (Andy) Seib and many nieces and nephews.

In addition to his parents, Alvin was preceded in death by two brothers-in-law, Orville Kueber and Leo Seib.

Alvin enjoyed playing clabber, Cardinals baseball, boating, camping, traveling and NASCAR, but his greatest enjoyment was spending time with family and friends.

Friends may visit with the family from 3:00 until 7:00 P.M. on Monday, September 2, 2013 at Pierre Funeral Home, 2601 W. Franklin Street.

Private funeral services will be held with entombment in St. Joseph Cemetery Mausoleum.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the VNA Plus Charlier Hospice Center or to the Ronald McDonald House.

The family extends a heartfelt thanks to Deaconess Heart Hospital and VNA Plus Charlier Hospice Center for the care and concerns for Alvin.
