“ Amanda, and I met on our first day of preschool at Adath Israel, and we were inseparable during our time there together. We reconnected at East baseball fields watching our sons play ball. Amanda was a kind, and loving soul that brought so much joy to everyone. Rest In Peace my sweet friend.

“ Amanda was like a second little sister to me. She was my sisters best friend since grade school. Amanda was always at our house, always at family functions. She WAS family. So many memories. She sat at the hospital with my sister for 19 hours waiting for the arrival of my first child! That's who Amanda was!!! Such a kind soul, always there when you needed her. Rest In Peace now Amanda.
