“ I coached Andrew in baseball when I believe he was 11. He pitched for me and had a super slow ball that was hard to hit. I gave him the nick name “Druski”. Vibbert family I’m truly sorry for your loss. I hope remembering times like this will ease your hearts.

“ I'll never forget the first day I met you at Sacred Heart. You were so little but you had the biggest personality I had ever seen. I knew that day you were special. You became my little buddy and I couldn't wait until school was over for the day to hang out with you and your friends at daycare. Your smile lit up the room and your laugh was contagious. You gave the best hugs too. I hope you knew how much you were loved by so many people and how much you will be missed.

Love, Miss Rachel

“ Champion hoodie, Jammie pants, and fun socks everyday. I would ask him every morning to show me his socks and then I would tell him he smelled like the mall. He was so quick witted with a straight face I could never tell when he was bullshiting me! Pretty sure I told him everyday he was full of shit lol! There's an empty spot at work that Fox left behind and there's no other socks that can take that place. He is fondly remembered and dearly missed, his struggles NEVER defined him in our eyes. You raised a good hearted kid who loved so much and it showed!! -Sam
