

Annah Ruth Hackney

February 5, 1925 - March 15, 2013

Annah Ruth Hackney fell asleep in Christ this past Friday, March 15. A founding member of St. Ananias Orthodox Church in Evansville, she was as active as she could be in its life and work in her later years.

Annah was born February 5, 1925 in Providence, Ky. During WWII she was a "Rosie the Riveter" helping grind diesel rods for the war effort. With respect to her church service she served as a Sunday school teacher, sang in choirs, and as member of women's groups throughout her life. In addition Annah served as a lay missionary to Guatemala in 1997. Space does not permit all the other ways in which she served her Lord, family and friends. Most of all she knew that she was a sinner in need of God's forgiveness.

Annah is survived by her daughter Nancy Cagle (James) of Monroe, Michigan, son Robert Hackney (Brenda) of Murray, Ky, and son Fr. Daniel Hackney (Presbytera Carole) of Evansville. She had eight grandchildren, and six great grandchildren. She is preceded by her husband Owen Marce Hackney, her parents Charles Owen and Annah Lurah Birchfield, and siblings William, Dorothy, and James.

The Visitation Wake will be Monday, March 18 from 4:30 PM - 6:30 PM at St. Ananias Orthodox Church, 4411 Washington Avenue in Evansville. The Funeral Service will be Tuesday, March 19 at 10AM at the church as well. The Liturgist will be Fr. Nabil Hanna, and the Homilist will be Fr. Daniel Hackney. Afterwards, she will be buried at Rowland Cemetery in Fredonia, Ky. A mercy meal will follow at the St. Ananias Parish Hall when the family arrives back.

All arrangements are being made by Pierre Funeral Home of Evansville. Memorial gifts may be made to the Saint Ananias Building Fund.

“ *Although I didn't know her very well, she did have an impact on me.
I had never heard her complain, however I did see her efforts and determination. When she did come to church, she always stood considering she had physical health obstacles, it didn't stop her to honor Our Lord Jesus. In the nursing home she waited and worked to go home patiently never complaining of the nursing home or health or anything. In the sight of many she needed assistant, to my surprise she felt she didn't and sometimes proved us all wrong.##imported-begin##Marian rizk##imported-end##*
