“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time of Blessing and Sorrow! I loved hearing Arnold & Rick singing Southern Gospel music in the quartets they participated in. Now he is singing again on streets of gold! We'll get to hear him again in his best voice ever. I may even get to join in then even though I can't carry a tune in a bucket now! Love to ALL! Gib, Emily and all the Hutchcraft and our families!

“ Arnold you will be greatly missed by everyone at Grace, but especially our choir. You worked tirelessly even when you didn't feel like it I'm sure. But now you are singing in Heaven.

So very sorry to hear of Arnold's passing. Prayers for peace and comfort to Charlene, Tim & family & Bill as well as Lori & Kyle and all of the family I never met! I liked Arnold from the moment I met him while he was living in Georgia and he and my baby daughter (Tracie) had an immediate love for one another. I also appreciated and "got" his dry sense of humor. Sing on Arnold!!! Love to all! Kathi Barry & Family
