“ Hey guys our prayers are with you. As you may remember, we buried a daughter, Kelli, in 1992 and we know what you are feeling at this time. Right now you are numb with grief but eventually the numbness will wear off and reality will hit. This is when you turn to God our Father for help. Believe me this happens and it's so hard. This by far will be the hardest thing you will ever experience in your entire lifetime. With each day as you try to put the pieces back together there will be days you just don't know how you will get out of bed. God knows your pain and is there if you pray for his binding strength. We are thinking of you and your family and are here if you need anything. I can offer some help with the grieving process if you need me.

“ Very sorry to all of Becky's family and friends for your loss, though I'm sure very few, if any, words can truly ease the pain that exists. Clearly she had earned quite the extraordinary reputation to go along with her myriad of accomplishments. And from all accounts, she was a such great person as well. Quite amazing for someone to do so much in so many ways at such a young age. Be forever proud of that. Though I don't know you, my thoughts are with you and I wish you all great strength and peace through your difficult times, as tough as they may be.##imported-begin##J.D. Bowman##imported-end##

We will keep all of you in our prayers as you cope with this unfathomable loss. May you have peace in knowing how many lives Becky touched.##imported-begin##Libby & Randy Brown##imported-end##*

Hello and Good Afternoon to you! My name is Brandon Harris; I am 38-years of age and I live in Boonville, Indiana. I work at Schnucks in Newburgh. I would like to tell you that I have met Becky many times when she has shopped there. She was a very pleasant person. I did not know her very well but I could tell that she was a wonderful person. She was always very nice and always stopped to talk to me when she was at Schnucks.

I am very sorry for the loss of your wife, daughter, sister, niece and aunt. Becky was all these things to her family. My thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family. May God give you and your family the most profound peace and comfort and surround you all with His love.
