“ Uncle Bernie and my Papaw (Bud Mayer) were pretty close, which meant I spent a lot of time in the tool shed with them. I was uncle Bernie's sweetie peetie pie. He brought that up at Papaw's funeral. Imagine a toddler in overalls following those two around, that was me (blessed me). They built our first play house together and painted each wall a different color. He was a great man.

It's been sometime since we spoke or visited but I still remember those moments, as part of the MD wrestling family, of your dad's support and the good memories that come with knowing your family. Bless each of you and your families as you celebrate your dad and the good memories he leaves for each of you to treasure. Roger Wathen*
