“ Betty and Joe were dear people. Joe and my dad were in WWII together, mechanics in an artillery unit. They never lost touch with one another. After Dad could no longer drive a distance, I would come home to Tennessee and take them on a visit to see Joe and Betty. I remember the pictures of all the quilts that she made...one for each of those 33 grandchildren, stories of raising her family, and her beautiful lush greenhouse. I didn't get a Christmas card from her last year, and just now thought to look for an obituary. This is very late, and may not be read by anyone, but I just wanted her family to know she holds a special place in my heart.

“ My first assignment as a priest was at St Wendel. Betty and Joe were so supportive of this young and naive person. Even after I left the priesthood ten years later they kept in contact and kept me up to date on the St Wendel families and parish.
They were a soulful couple, gracious, prayerful and always accepting.
After Joe's passing I continued to receive a note and Christmas card from Betty including 2017. This year Kathy and I spent most of our time in Chicago with our grandkids. I missed her passing and only realized it when I hadn't received her Christmas card. Very late condolences to a great family of two wonderful people.

“ Dear Blankenberger Family,

Sorry I was not able to be with to celebrate your mom's going to heaven. She was a lovely lady. I have very fond memories of getting to know her and Joe during my years at St. Wendel -- even shared a few meals at their home. Be assured of my prayers.
God bless you all,

“ *Betty was a delightful woman who always had a twinkle in her eye and a dry, wry sense of humor. I can just see the corners of her mouth twitching as she worked hard to stifle a laugh in the middle of a joke or telling a story. There are so many people who've been waiting in heaven for you. I'm sure they were elbowing each other to get to the front of the line to welcome you. Tell them hello from the rest of us down here. Your niece,
