“ My condolences to the family and friends of Betty. It was my pleasure to meet her through Carolyn. Carolyn and I lived next door to each other and I remember Betty lived with Carolyn for awhile after the ordeal of the smoke damage to her apartment. She was a trooper. I know she loved playing cards with Carolyn and her brothers. And she loved to laugh. When I think of her I will remember her laughing. I picture her in Heaven - no more pain, no more struggles. Rest in Peace dear lady.
