Elizabeth (Betty) A. Knox, 85, passed away Wednesday, June 06, 2007 at VNA Charlier Hospice Center.

She was born on November 17, 1921 in Evansville, IN, the third child of Rosa J. (Pohl) and Benedict C. Kuriger.

Betty was a member of St. Matthew Catholic Church in Mt. Vernon, IN for many years. She worked at Republic Aviation, where she met her husband of 56 years, John C. (Jack) Knox. They were married in 1944 and had five children. She was a 1940 graduate of Reitz High School.

Betty, John and family lived on Old Lower Mt. Vernon Road for over 55 years and Betty's U-Pick Strawberry patch was well known. Her motto "No charge for the berries canned in the field" gave a chuckle to one and all. Betty was also known throughout the tri-state area as the "Weed Lady" and for more than twelve years she and John traveled the country gathering "weeds" for her dry flower business "Gifts from Nature." She also spent many hours gardening, sewing and quilting.

She is survived by three daughters, Carol Knox Ball and her husband, Richard, of Kennelon, New Jersey, Nancy Knox of Nashville, Tennessee and Susy Knox Phillips, her caregiver, and her husband, Richard, of Dennison, Illinois and one son, John Knox, Jr. of New Harmony, Indiana. Two grandsons, Christopher and Matthews and special friends, Becky Schneider and Lisa Marts also survive her.

She was preceded in death by her husband, John, in 2000 and her son, Bob (Sandy) in 1988.

Funeral services will begin at 10:00 A.M. Friday, June 8, 2007 at Pierre Funeral Home, 2601 W. Franklin Street, Sister Jenny Miller, O.S.B. officiating. Burial will follow in St. Matthew Cemetery.

“ All of you have my deepest sympathy. Your mother was a wonderful woman and was so energetic and creative. I still remember the colorful braided rugs that she made and she gave me one of her "weed" baskets for a wedding gift and I enjoyed it in my dining room for many years.

*God bless you all.
