“ RIP Uncle Bill...the last living sibling of my parents left us yesterday. One of my favorite memories was a Christmas long ago, when he gave me a gift and told me he got something extra just for me. It was a Barbie board game. I asked him why, as I had already received a gift from him and Aunt Elizabeth, and he just shrugged his shoulders. I asked my mom, and she said " He is just like that, and always has been, he does special little things quietly without expectations." Sending my love and prayers to my cousins, Kathy Dressel, Carol Butler, Patrick Lawrence and their families. Linda Overfield
