“ I loved seeing Brady everyday when I drove for Daniel Wertz and took the pre-k kids in. Brady was just so polite and always wanted to show me something when I walked the kids in. He'd rush to the door to open it when we got there. Such a precious face to greet us.

“ Brady and my oldest son went to daycare together for about a year. A couple years later, Brooklyn was going to watch my youngest when she opened up her daycare. At the open house, they played together for hours, like they never missed a beat. My oldest told me when we left that he wanted to go to daycare there too! He loved playing with Brady. As a mom, I simply cannot wrap my mind around the pain this loss must be causing you. I know there is absolutely nothing that can be said or done that will ease this pain, but I do pray that God can wrap his arms around you and provide you a sense of peace and calming during this tragic time.
