

Brandon McManomy

September 9, 1986 - November 4, 2016

Brandon McManomy, 30, of Evansville, passed away Friday, November 4, 2016 at University of Louisville Hospital.

Brandon had attended Castle High School and University of Southern Indiana. He is survived by his parents, Bradley and Velba (Sweeney) McManomy and his sister, Crystal (Chris) Hotz, all of Evansville.

Brandon loved boating, jet skis, cars, and anything mechanical. He loved playing basketball, handball and volleyball. He had recently learned how to play the acoustic guitar. He LOVED his friends and family. One of his friends said, "He had a laugh I can still hear, and a smile that could be seen for miles."

Services will be held at 10:00 A.M. Thursday, November 10, 2017 at Pierre Funeral Home. Burial will follow in St. Joseph Cemetery.

Friends may visit with the family from 4:00 until 8:00 P.M. Wednesday at Pierre Funeral Home, 2601 W. Franklin Street.

Condolences may be left online at www.pierrefuneralhome.com.

“ Dear Velba, Brad and Crystal,
Our hearts go out to you at this sad time. We recall those days when lived down the street from us and Brandon, Collin and Eric would play together. We found out about the visitation from Diane Jaquess but to late for us to make it to the funeral home, Just wanted you to know that we will be thinking about you.

Love,

“ Velba, Brad... My heart is broken for you. I can't begin to imagine your grief. When I think of Brandon, I think of his beautiful smile and his laugh and how how much he enjoyed being with friends and family. I'm happy to have had him in our lives. Stephen feels the same way but is heartbroken as well. We will always have a special place in our hearts for Brandon. He was loved.
