“ Brandon, Was a very nice service today and a huge crowd celebrating your life..I will always remember the time you invited me to go to this "LITTLE JAM SESSION" at Stevenson Station that was actually a THRASH party complete with skinheads and mohawks 🤘... Needless to say I stayed a while but was ready to go after you played a little bit..I think of that time often when I pass that building on Stevenson Station Rd,It Will have a even more better meaning in time now..I also remember that you loved tormenting the late Mrs Savage and was sent to principals office often.. Take care till we meet again my friend..

“ Brandon, I will miss you forever. Like a brother to me. From our moms being friends in high school to us growing up together. There are so many memories together. You were a big part of my childhood and for that you will always be a big part of me. I am sorry that we lost touch with each other when I moved away. I wish there was a way to go sit on Mesker park cat walk and catch up with you and Mikey D. Thank you Candy for allowing us to be kids. From jamming out in your basement as he learned to play the drums and we tried to dance like Kid and Play. To building a half pipe in your backyard for us to get hurt. You raised such a great son and for that I thank you. One day we will be together again. You will so be missed. Love you.

“ The first time I met him, I called for a cab to get home from work. When I got in, he had a lot of energy about something; really hyped up. Before I could introduce myself, he just said, " You gotta check this f%*!in song out!!!!" Low and behold, my favourite song at that time, Vicarious, by Tool! Instantly clicked. And for a couple years after that, we were damn good friends. We had lost contsct about a year ago, because I had moved. Needless to say, hearing of this tragedy is most painful. I love you bro, I'm sry I disappeared. Up ill always be in my ticker homie!
