“ Darrell and family,
I want to tell you how sorry I am for your loss. Brenda and I were good friends in high school and she and your sister Elaine were even bridesmaids in my wedding. We lost track of each other when we both started our families and I regret that very much. I ran into her at a preschool meeting about 8 or 9 years ago. We talked afterwards in the parking lot for a couple of hours. I'll never forget that. I'm sorry we didn't get together afterward like we talked about. She was a wonderful friend and I'm glad to have known her.

“ Darrel, Jamie, Adam, Brandon, Brian, and Aaron,

I'm so sorry to hear of Brenda's passing. I have such fond memories of her and of babysitting at your house when you kids were VERY much younger. I am deeply sorry that we will not be able to pay proper respects to her and to your family as we are in Kansas. Please know, though, that her soul, as well as the well being of your family will be the focus of our prayers over the coming weeks. We will miss her personality, smile, and general love and kindness for others always. God bless you all and may our Blessed Mother guide and protect you.

Love,
Andy, Mindy, Seth, Dominic, Kieran, Peter, Raphael, and Evelyn McDonald###imported-begin###Mindy (Knapp) McDonald###imported-end##

“ Darrel, I am so sorry for your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you and the kids.

I am out of town at present, for the week. Sorry I can not pay proper respect at Pierre's.

I did not know Karen well, but I heard nothing but good comments from everyone that knew her. She was blessed to have you as her husband. May your fond memories carry you through the grief.##imported-begin##Mary Ellen Klenck Ziliak##imported-end##

“ My heart and prayers go out to Brenda's family. I lived next door to her when I was growing up in St. Philip's and had babysat for her and her siblings. Her family had a reverence about them and you could tell they were good people to the core. She was like an angel. Know she's with God now and she's very happy.##imported-begin##JoAnn Fulkerson Lawson##imported-end##
