“ Carl was a great man! I have great memories of the time spent growing up with him as the little brother of one of his best friends. He always treated me as an equal. Such fun. The best complement I can give him is he was the biggest goof ball I have ever met. The smile on his face tells it all!

“ Years ago, I remember hanging out with Carl and his son Mike at their shop - mostly drinking SKI and bullshitting about life. Carl was always funny as hell and a good man. We used to call him "The Colonel." My sincere condolences to Mike and the family... Cheers Carl!

“ Carl was a part of our family in the 60's. I couldn't begin to tell you of the energy and laughter that filled our home when he walked through the door. He, and my brothers, and even my Dad, shared many adventures. Life got in the way & we all lost touch. So sorry about that. I will always remember him with a smile.
