“ Carol you were the sloppiest, meanest, kindest, loving dearest heart I've ever known.

I know as you put on your purple robe with the deep pockets and slip on your golden crocks the first thing you'll ask Bob is "Where is this weekends list of yard sales and flea markets!"

Heaven got a good one. I already miss fussing with you.

And of course the Wieners all miss you!

“ We had many good and bad days at TJ but we made it through. Rest in Peace dear friend.

“ You were the bestest sister a guy could ever ask for, I love you and will miss you always. It still doesn't seem real to me but I guess it will sink in sooner or later.

I'm so very sorry to hear about Carol's passing. She is a wise and beautiful soul. Now she will fly with the angels and her pain is now gone. She always spoke so lovingly about her sons, her family and friends. She also had a soft spot in her heart for animals, especially her pets. She often worked through unimaginable pain, but always kept putting one foot in front of the other to get the job done. It was a privilege to know her and to work with her.
