“ We knew her as Kelly (thought that was her first name). For many years, she served us, kept us in line, and truly cared for each one that came through to get a bite to eat, drink, or just to chat.

She listened to us, our gripes, our concerns, even our hopes. She laughed and cried with us. When she was sick and missed work, we cared and came together to help by the giving of hundreds of dollars. When she had to attend a funeral of a family member, we visited. We gave her our goodbyes mixed with tears, hugs and hope for her when she retired.

The Oasis at Whirlpool hasn't been the same since. We missed her then and we share in the family and friends loss now.

From one who remembers the cherished times of 'Kelly' to family and friends, thanks for sharing her life with us.
