“ Thank you for all the kind words. It has been a difficult time for my father, sister and myself. It will certainly take time to deal with this tremendous loss in our family. We appreciate all the prayers, sympathies and memories shared.

“ So sorry, Jim. Was shocked when I got your message by mail today. Although we haven't seen you in a few years, it was always good to hear from you at Christmas time. A lot of good memories working with Carolyn and you in Loretta Lynn's fan club. Many fun times at Little Nashville getting a meal together for Loretta's band and the fans in the club. Have a lot of pictures I hope to share with you in the future. Mom and I send our best to you and the girls.

“ Dear Loretta, I am thinking of you and your family. I remember meeting your parents, once when I volunteered at the zoo. I thought that it was cool that they visited you.
