“ We loved this great lady. The most wonderful neighbor my mom had at Leisure Living. We visited her and Starlus many times. I knew your mom first from getting our hair done at the same salon. . . I knew her many wonderful years and cleaned their home before I was forced to quit with back problems. After they moved to Leisure Living my mom ended up next door to them while waiting on a 1 bedroom, which was still only a few doors down. My mom loved walking down to chat with them. . Catherine was such a funny lady. Always told us Starlus had a wad of money in his wallet and was sitting on it so she couldn't spend it. Oh, they days of Charlene living across the street always needing help from Sarlus . . your mom always joked how she got more of his attention than she did. That's the greatest part of a marriage that lasted 68 years that you can make light of every moment and have so much joy and laughter. Although my heart was very sad to see the passing today, of Catherine, I know that she is in heaven now with her greatest love. God Bless you and your family, may you continue on in life with the values they left behind. Catherine was a remarkable lady that we will never forget.

Linda Burton and Marcella Rawlings (Leisure Living, age 93).
