“ She was a lovely lady. When I was a teenage girl I remember Mrs Siemers being so kind and having such elegance. I wanted to be like her when I grew up! Sending comfort to the family in your time of loss. Warmly, Tina Reine

“ I met Kate at SWIRCA when we were scheduled to volunteer together. I found out soon that Kate may be small but she didn't let anyone push her around. Oh how I admired her. Sweet, kind and loyal. I am sorry for your loss. She will missed. All my sympathy and prayers....Linda Brown

“ It was June 13, 2019 . . .

Last night's sunset was special. The girls and I stopped to chat with Mrs. Siemers. Mrs. Siemers (she insist I call her Kate) paused and pointed to the sunset and said "that is beautiful". Her many years of wisdom have taught her that seconds count and she didn't want me to miss it. So I turned around and we silently stood together and watched the sun slowly fade into tree line. Seconds count and this is one I will cherish!
