“ Haven't seen you in many years but still remember you fondly. Sharon BROADHEAD. You may know Walter went home last June and this is the hardest journey I've ever made. I pray that you will find comfort and strength from our Heavenly Father. You had 34 years together. Sure doesn't seem that long. We had 65 and I do sincerely thank my God for His blessings. I know you do too. Take care and go with God. Love and blessings. Sharon

“ Susan,

Your mom was one of the kindest, sweetest and most down-to-earth moms of all my friends. I loved coming to your house to play (and hauling that huge Barbie case with me) because she always made everyone feel like they were special. I still quail when I think about her face after we took Jim's car for a joyride, and would have done almost anything to make it right with her again! She was just special, and will be sorely missed.

Thinking of you, dear friend.
