

Charles Alspaugh

June 30, 1953 - June 20, 2009

Charles E. "Tiny" Alspaugh, 55, of Evansville, passed away on Saturday, June 20, 2009 at Deaconess Gateway Hospital.

Tiny had worked as a truck driver for Air Liquide for the past 22 years. He appreciated and enjoyed the many friendships he formed with his co-workers during that time. He loved his cat, Sierra and enjoyed working in his Day Lilly garden, bird watching and cooking.

Tiny was a loving father and husband and is survived by his wife of 33 years, Susan (Kissinger) Alspaugh; daughter, Brandy Kramer and her husband, Josh of Salt Lake City, UT; brother, Robert Alspaugh and his wife, Charlene and his mother-in-law, Jane Kissinger all of Evansville.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Oliver and Geneva Alspaugh and two brothers, Oliver Charles and Terry Alspaugh.

Graveside services will be held at 4:00 P.M. on Thursday, June 25, 2009 at Tupman Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to Pierre Funeral Home, 2601 W. Franklin Street, Evansville, IN 47712 to help defray funeral expenses.

Pierre Funeral Home is handling arrangements.

Friends and family may leave condolences online at www.pierrefuneralhome.com.

“ "Tiny" was my brother-in-law for 33 years & he couldn't of been a better husband for my "little sister," because you could tell the love that he had for her. She didn't have to want for anything. He liked the best things in life from day lilies to his stereo knowledge & to just learning about everything. He's been greatly missed by all. With much love.##imported-begin##Judi Diefenbaugh##imported-end##

“ Susie,

Words just can't convey how sorry I am for your loss. From the time we were kids, Tiny never changed...every time I saw him, he still had that same smile...always smiling...and he still looked like the boy I grew up with. He was a fine person and will be greatly missed. I will keep you in my prayers.
