“ Dear Family,

It was a blessing getting to know Charles when I served as pastor at St. Matthew Parish. He was a wonderful man, a little shy until you got to know him. But very friendly. We visited a little bit in early November in church and I knew he had had health issues, but he never complained. Even got a laugh and a smile out of him. Sorry I'm unable to be with you for his funeral, but I am joined with you in prayer. May God console you knowing that Charles is now in heaven with his beloved Irene whom he "towered" over and loved dearly.

God bless,
