“ I have fond memories of Tommy when I was a teenager growing up in Owensboro. I rode my bike to town and watched Tommy and Josie while their parents worked. Wanda is my half-sister and I will always remember those long summer days we enjoyed together going to the park and playing together. I know Tommy had a hard life but now I know he is with his Lord in Heaven with no pains or suffering and I will see hiim again. Tommy is with his dad in heaven and I pray that God will bless his family. Bob Proctor
