

Charles T. Golike Jr.

August 27, 1955 - March 29, 2023

Charles T. “Butch” Golike, Jr., 67, of Evansville, passed away on Wednesday, March 29, 2023 at Skyline Hospital in Nashville, TN as the result of an accident.

Butch was born on August 27, 1955 in Evansville to the late Charles T. Golike, Sr. and Beulah (Blair) Golike Axley. He loved bowling and driving and worked as a transport driver for Velox Incorporated. Butch also enjoyed watching the horses run and spending time with his family and friends.

Surviving Butch are his brother and sister-in-law, Anthony “Tony” and Tammy Golike; a half-sister, Doris Marts; his best friend, Patti Harlow and dear friend, Veronica Embry. He also leaves behind his two fur babies who were like his children, Cindy Lou and Mary.

In addition to his parents, Butch was preceded in death by his wife, Mary Beth (Liggett) Golike in 2017 and by two brothers, Markus and Wendell Golike.

Private services will be held with entombment to take place in Park Lawn Cemetery.

“ My pops always called Charlie his best friend. I remember Charlie hanging out at the bowling alley and Ellis Park. When I got married he was there. You could call day or night and he would show up, offering a helping hand. He was a good friend to my family and my dad's best friend. Sorry for your loss.
