“ This memory goes way back---kids were so small--Ede and Amy still in diapers which made visits back and forth more difficult. We were such good friends with Barbara and Charlie. Now all the neighbors are gone except for Barbara and myself. Charlie was a very good dad. And his family was so devoted to him.---Barbara Litschgi

“ I'll never forget spending the night with Maria and walking in on her parents dancing. No music playing. They were like giddy school kids. Maria was embarrassed and we giggled. But I'll always remember thinking, "that's the kind of marriage I want when I grow up". I'm so terribly sorry for your loss. But please know what a footprint he left in my heart. A memory I will always cherish and a marriage I strive to duplicate.
