“ I experienced Charlie as very engaging and curious about other people. Years ago, Charlie and Bill visited us in California to paint the exterior of our house. They did a great job. Dianne and I also took them to Las Vegas where they wanted to visit the casinos. They stayed up till the wee hours of the night playing the slot machines, while Dianne and I had gone to bed hours before. On a previous trip, Charlie and Bill asked me to take them to Hooters, well known for its scantily clad waitresses. During our visit there, they were raving all night about the impressive ... Chicken wings! May good memories of Charlie comfort, family, and friends in this time of loss.
