“ I've known your dad since grade school days and also high school at North. I always knew him as a kind and loving person who enjoyed his family and friends. The first year that I retired from teaching, your dad and I emailed off and on for over two years. He wanted to know what "retirement" was all about, and how I liked it. I got to see him and visit with him at our last North High School reunion. As usual, he was in good spirits and we got "caught up" on some of the years, that had gone by.

I will always remember him as a "good kid" who was so kind to everyone.

“ Dear Liz and family,
Although I never met your father, he must have been a wonderful dad to have such an outstanding daughter. During this time of great sadness, may you find comfort in the memories you have of his personality, family times and his contributions to the greater community. My prayers are with you. The Lord bless you and keep you.
