“ We are so sorry to hear that Mike is gone. He was a very likable man. Funny, and a great friend to my Dad. I’m sure they’re together telling some of their many stories. And I always enjoyed visiting with him. Prayers for you all.

“ My prayers to God for acceptance and peace for Mary Lou and the family and friends. I have been thinking of all the memories we shared along with Pat and Peck Jones, and other friends for over 50 years. Our families growing up. The family reunions, fishing, camping, playing games, and of course the good food. One memory in particular was Mike's love of a bon fire when we camped where they were allowed. We usually carried some fire wood, but if we ran out Mike would herd us to the woods to gather what we needed. There was usually plenty of trees/limbs to collect when we needed them. We loved mike and will miss him until we meet again. My love to Mary Lou and Mikes family and friends. God be with all of you.
