A precious lady with a beautiful soul! As I look at the video, I can just hear her telling Walt, "Look what we started all those years ago. Heaven and earth can't deny we made a difference." What a beautiful legacy!

Sorry for your lost. Aunt Clara was one of a kind, always smiling and laughing. Aunt Clara was my last aunt or uncle on both sides of my family so it is doubly painful to lose her. May she rest in peace and prayers to your families. Ted Zirkelbach

“ Dear Anslinger family,
I am so sorry for your loss. I remember Clara and Walter and all the kids at St. Agnes.
She was a great cook and she was a big part of the Fall Festival kuchen crew. We worked hard but we had a lot of fun as well. Clara came to the convent and helped Sister Janet make many pie crusts that we froze for later use because Clara knew how to do it a bit better than anyone.
Steve, I will keep you and your family in my prayers. Clara was so special. I loved her laughter. She is in the hands of her Creator.
Rest in Peace Clara.

“ Remember doing Clara hair at Westside ABC Beauty Salon years ago until moved to Tell City ...in 1975...beautiful lady inside and out. And remember her telling me about helping bake those Coffee Cakes for her church.. during Fall Festival, sure she left lots of beautiful memories in everyone hearts. So Sorry thoughts and prayers to her family

“ Dear Anslinger Cousins,
Heaven is a Happier Place today. Your Mom made every place she was in, happier.
35 years ago this past Monday, 10/12/1985, your Mom and Dad were at My wedding in Pensacola. They drove around and looked at the places they used to go to when they were stationed in the Pensacola / Mobile area. They told us stories and reminisced about their stay in the area. Somehow I feel like your Dad is glad your Mom is with him now, so they can spend that Eternal Tour together. I know you will make this a Celebration of Her Life. I only wish I could be there to hear every funny story and feel all of the Love you have for your Mom.
Your Cousin,
David Hope

“ Dear Anslinger Family,

I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. Aunt Clara was a favorite aunt and I have many fond memories of our family get togethers.

She had a great sense of humor which was enjoyed by all!
