“ Dear Weinzapfel family, our family has very fond memories of the years we lived in Posey County (1961-1982) Some of those memories were directly created by Dick & Loretta Weinzapfel in their store. They were always so cordial and patient and helpful. I'm sure my kids probably drove them "bonkers" at times, but you would never know they were bothered. Many times my car was on "fumes" or a tire was real low, and I could always count on Dick, Bert or Jim to be willing to help me get on the road again. They treated us like "family" and they don't make folks like this anymore! Please accept our heartfelt sympathy and know we will never forget any of you! God Bless!
