“ As Clayton's 1st cousin and only 1 year his senior, I have many childhood memories. My mother was his aunt Eleanor Volkmann Getz. The best memories were from our family get togethers and especially at Uncle Paul's camp in Hampstead. There were Birthday parties and Uncle Paul visited every Sunday morning at our house. We lost contact after he joined the marines. The online video was a gift to me. There were tears in my eyes as the gap in our lives was filled with scenes of Clayton and his beautiful family. Over the years my only contact was with his sister, Carlyne, who would update me occasionally.

My sincere condolences to the family on your loss.
