“ Karen, I am so sorry for your loss. Your Father was such a nice man. I remember them both so well. Always enjoyed seeing them at Cindi and John's. They both made you laugh and smile all the time. They are together again in heaven. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your Family.

“ Dear Karen and Don, and family --
Please accept my deepest condolences on the death of your father. I had hoped to stop by this week at Pine Haven to visit him and you, Karen, since I heard that you were spending a lot of time with your dad these last few days. I am very sorry that I am unable to celebrate his funeral tomorrow, but I will be leaving today for a retreat, where I am one of the main presenters, until Sunday. I know that Fr. Ted visited your dad often when he was in the hospital recently as he does for all St. Matthew Parishioners -- he acts as our Associate Pastor. So Fr. Ted will have a beautiful and comforting ceremony for you all. Thank you also for remembering St. Matthew in the memorial contributions. I and the parish appreciate your generosity. Karen, I had heard that your cancer has returned so when you get a chance to come back to a weekday Mass, we'll anoint you again with holy oil. We just have to keep bombasting heaven for a cure. I've heard many good things about your mom and dad and their kindness to others. One can tell by the smile on his face that he was a happy and jovial man, which I think comes from a deep faith in God who will take care of him. My prayers are with you at this time. May you all know that someday you will see your dad again in heaven and enjoy his love and friendship forever.
God bless you and comfort you,
Fr. Jim Sauer
