“ I didn't know Clint very well, I met him through my best friend, Sara Hoehn. Sara introduced me to him online one night and I talked to him a lot from then on. I never got the honor to actually meet him in person but I had heard so many stories about how funny he was and how good of a friend he was to everyone he met. I remember one time he imed me and asked me how my day went, I hadn't had a very good day so I was telling him everything about it. I remember him saying "I know I don't know you very well but you seem really nice and i'll always be here to listen." I regret not being able to become a bigger part of his life. He was a wonderful person and he'll be loved and missed by a lot of people. My prayers are with you always and remember wherever you are God is with you.

God Bless You,

“ My heart absolutely is wrenched for you over this. This boy was truly one of the joys of all my baseball coaching experiences. Always a smile on his face with the sun splashing over him like he didn't have a care in the world. He was truly a ballplayer at heart. And in that sense, he grabbed my heart too. I pray with all my heart and soul that he is in a ballpark somewhere now running out a double as I write this and that his cares have all been removed. He would be at peace forever if that prayer has been answered. I will remember him forever. He was quite a young man.##imported-begin##Tim Major##imported-end##
