

Cory M. Kempf

April 28, 1988 - May 11, 2016

Cory M. Kempf, age 28, of Evansville, passed away Wednesday, May 11, 2016.

Cory was a salesman at heart and enjoyed talking to people. He had an insatiable curiosity and researched everything. He was an avid gamer and reader and loved history and politics.

Surviving Cory are his mother and stepfather, Robin and Clem Goebel of Evansville; his father, Carl Kempf of Evansville; a son, Malachi Kempf; sisters, Karly Kempf of Louisville, KY and Natalie Kempf of Evansville; grandparents, Jack and Mary Ashby, Phyllis McAtee and Jerri Kempf, all of Evansville; the mother of his child and friend, Kaylin Largent; cousin and close friend, Andrew Kempf; a step sister, Michelle Goebel; step brother, Matt Goebel and many aunts, uncles and cousins.

Cory was preceded in death by grandparents, Tom Kempf and Mickey McAtee.

There will be a Mass of Christian Burial held 10:00 A.M. on Tuesday, May 17, 2016 at St. Philip Catholic Church, Rev. Claude Burns officiating. Burial will be held at Locust Hill Cemetery.

Friends may visit with the family from 2:00 until 8:00 P.M. on Monday at Pierre Funeral Home, 2601 W. Franklin Street and from 9:30 A.M. until service time on Tuesday at St. Philip Church.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to benefit Cory's son, Malachi Kempf, at Old National Bank, 100 N. Main Street, Evansville, IN 47710.

PS

Ken and I were so sad to hear about the untimely death of Cory. It is so sad to know that now his little boy will grow up without his father and his family has to go on with a terrible void in their hearts. Know that God is with you and Cory and he is at peace in Heaven. With love to my dear cousin, Robin Ashby Goebel, and her entire family. My prayers are with each of you in this extreme time of sadness. With love, Pam Farthing Stern and Kenneth D. Stern
