“ Courtney was one of the sweetest, most kindest girls in highschool. We would chat occasionally from time to time over the years, we were penpals (like the old days) for a bit talking about life and kids and planning potential visits. She always knew how to make me smile and in highschool- that was tough and my RBF game was strong. Courtney was one of those people that felt like light, carry your light babygirl and shine some down on us. ✨

“ One of the many afternoons that Courtney and I enjoyed caring for the boys when they were little, Joel had learned to yell loudly and excitedly in his baby chair on the floor. Courtney and I laughed and talked to him, then we called Dom in who was 7 to enjoy his baby brother’s loud noises! A little while later, Nick came home from work and Joel proudly showed off his new happy screeching sound! Another time I came to visit, Courtney showed me how Joel had been taking his bottle out to “talk to it” with lots of “ooo - ooo” sounds - I remember her smiling at him so adoringly. That same visit, Dom came into the living room to “get us” with his nerf gun - Courtney and I both laughed and played along dramatically! She was a sweet, patient, and fun mom and those qualities made her easy to be around. She had a lovely contentment in all those times just to be near her children (and usually cooking or baking something very good!). I will always treasure those simple, happy times with her. ❤️
